Hi,

Due to a massive drop in prices there has been a resurgence of interest in properties in Spain.

For the bargain hunters among you we are happy to announce we are staying open over the (traditionally) quiet period of November & December. However we only have limited places available, we would like you to see the amazing bargains available and decide for yourselves:

The easiest way to view properties in Spain

- No driving
- No searching for locations
- All appointments made on your behalf
- No language problems
- No obligation!
- Amazing villas, townhouses and apartments with discounts of up to 50%
- Key-ready, complete in weeks
- Finance available in the UK or resort

From just £199 trips include:

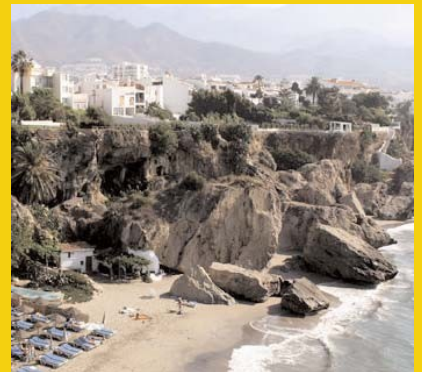

- All transfers in resort
- 3 nights in a 4* Hotel
- Lunch with us (free to enjoy your own time in the evenings)
- Independent legal advice
- Independent mortgage advice
- Full re-fund of the inspection trip cost if you secure that dream property*

Let our professional team make you feel at home; we will show you properties within your specification and budget in your favourite areas. Allow us to share a few secrets and introduce you to the type of bargains rarely available.

By the end of your enjoyable trip, you will be up-to -date with the market and all the opportunities it affords.
